Business PAC supporting March for Mayor and Marz for Council Ward III

Henderson's Issues Mobilization Political Action Committee (IMPAC) has finalized its endorsements Debra March for Mayor and John Marz for Ward III as the City of Henderson prepares to host its primary elections April 4.

Henderson IMPAC serves as a comprehensive, non-partisan political action committee that contributes to the creation of a favorable business climate in Henderson as it relates to issues at the state and local level. IMPAC, which is independent of the Henderson Chamber of Commerce but supports its organizational vision, discussed issues involving economic development, land-use planning, budgeting and finances and more with candidates.

Henderson IMPAC's mission is to encourage the protection and enhancement of constitutional liberties; promote the good citizenship of the Henderson Chamber of Commerce members through personal and financial participation in the state and local elective process; and any additional areas of government policy or regulation the Henderson Chamber of Commerce encourages, promotes or opposes.

Henderson IMPAC asks that you consider supporting the above candidates when voting this election season.
