About Sean Connery

Sean Connery is a best-selling author, an international speaker, and a co-founder and president of both Orbis Solutions and IT IS Compliance.

Orbis Solutions, Inc (OSI) is a virtual IT Department that focuses on helping businesses increase their productivity, profitability, and cyber security. OSI provides all the support and services that you would expect from a large in-house IT department, but at a fraction of the cost.

IT IS Compliance is dedicated to conducting and defending PCI and HIPAA audits, as well as other compliance needs. Staffed with certified testers including a CISSP (Certified Information Security Systems Professional) and a CEH (Certified Ethical Hacker) the seasoned penetration testing team methodically investigates systems for potential vulnerabilities and provides solutions for any weaknesses they identify.

Sean's last book, Under Attack: How to Protect your Business & Bank Account From Fast-Growing, Ultra-Motivated and Highly Dangerous Cybercriminal Rings was an Amazon Best-Seller in several categories including Network Security and Security & Encryption.

In 2018, Sean was a finalist for the Top Tech Exec Awards in Las Vegas, NV. An award meant to honor those in the community who have an innovative vision and are willing to take risks, in order to make their organizations more successful and productive.

As a Thought Leader in Cyber Security he has spoken at Microsoft, Harvard, and various other venues to several C-Level Executives across the nation. To keep business leaders informed about the growing threat of cybercrime and help them understand what they can do to keep their information safe.

After working in the IT industry for over 30 years and valuing continuing education for both himself and his employees, Sean has amassed several acronyms behind his name. Some of the highlights are CISSP, MCSE (Microsoft Certified Systems Engineer), ITIL (Information Technology Infrastructure Library), VCP (VMware Certified Professional), and CSSP (Certified SonicWALL Security Professional).

Sean's experience and ingenuity enables him to continue growing both OSI and IT IS Compliance, while still being able to make sure his clients receive a level of service that exceeds their expectations. Sean and OSI were honored to be presented with Community Partner of the Year, from Positively Kids a Southern Nevada Charity working to make healthcare accessible to at risk children.
